State Troops Will Not Permit Striking Miners to Occupy Forbes Colony.

Forbes Colony.

Trinidad, Col., March 12.—State troops to-day prevented a party of striking coal miners restoring the tents in the lower Forbes colony, recently demolished by militia. The strikers had erected four tents when the troops arrived. These were torn down and the union men were told they would not be permitted to reoccupy the lower colony. The strikers left the scene without attempting to resist.

Among the strikers were some of the sixteen men released yesterday by the militia after being held in connection with the killing of a nonunion miner, near the Forbes colony.

Lawson Sends Protest.

Denver, Col., March 19.—John R.
Lawson, Colorado member of the international executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, to-day sent the following telegram to Dr. M. D.
Foster, chairman of the House committee, which recently investigated the Colorado miners' strike, Representative Edward Keating, of Colorado, and John P. White, president of the Miners' Union:

P. White, president of the Miners' Union:

"To-day sixteen miners who yesterday were released by the military at Trinidad, Col., returned to their homes at Forbes, and began re-crecting their homes, which last week were torn down by the military. When four tent homes had been rebuilt, General Chase tore them down again, and is camped on the ground to prevent rebuilding. The miners' tents are on ground which we have leased. There is no charge of any kind against the miners who seek to rebuilt their destroyed homes."

Governor Ammons late to-day said he had received no report from Adjutant-General Chase regarding the attempt to rebuilt the tents, and declined to comment.
